

2011~ 2013(11-8J)

Project Name:	Project for International Comparative Research on Curriculum and Development Education in Europe, Oceania, and East Asia and Administrative Works
Country:	Europe, Oceania, East Asia
Status:	Solo
Project Duration:	Current Year	Start Date:	End Date:
FY 2011	1 st Year	2011.12.1	2012.3.31
FY 2012	2 nd Year	2012.4.1	2013.3.31
FY 2013	3 rd Years	2013.4.1	2014.3.31
Assignment Description:
In the current globalizing world, the relationship between Japan and other countries has become more complex. it is necessary for the Japanese to be a “Global Person”: one who is a capable person who can understand such complex world phenomenon quickly and adjust to different values and environments smoothly. This project aims to collect information and data on how educational organizations in foreign countries have been dealing with globalization, analyze the information and data, and suggest what Japan’s education curriculum should be in the future. In addition, the project also aims to collect information on how development education has been conducted by governments, NGOs, and other actors in foreign countries, analyze the historical process and trends of the development education in those countries, and suggest how the development education should be conducted in Japan in the future. Furthermore, administrative work related to the Project will be done by IDCJ. This project is a cooperative project between Hiro-o Center of JICA, and the National Institute for Educational Policy Research, the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology.			